To Whom It May Concern:

How do I begin to describe the talent and tenacity of J. Michael Roddy?

Michael has been my friend for many years and for that alone I am thankful.

However, for the purpose of this letter I want to share my impressions of him as a professional.

He has been on stage as a theater actor (I had the privilege of starring with him on two occasions) and has worked behind the scenes to produce wonderful works, both film, and live stage shows.

He is not only a joy to work with but is a consummate professional and an actor's director. He is driven and talented and so very gifted.

James Michael Roddy is a family man, a talented gift, and a good friend. I am honored to know him and to have shared a stage with him.

With great sincerity,
